Be not deceived; God is not mocked: for whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap. — Galatians 6:7

Bastards

The English language has been under assault. It is much less precise and realistic than it used to be. It gets worse every year. The following definition is from the Websters 1828 dictionary. I commend that version to your use. It will do much to heal your thinking ... clear up the brainfog that accompanies the demon possession of western culture. Here is that dictionary's definition of the word Bastard, "an appellation given to a faction or troop of bandits, who ravaged Guienne in France in the 14th century; supposed to have been headed by the illegitimate sons of noblemen, who were excluded from the rights of inheritance." In our minds the word is a swear word that must not be used in Christian company. It obviously didn't start out that way. It referred to a gang of militant noblemen who had no legitimate claim on political power — as a result of being born outside of wedlock. Wow. Think about today. It has happened so fast. We now have a thirty-something young MAN who refers to himself as a "wife" running for President ... and being taken seriously!? And you thought the bastardization of the word "gay" was bad. And Donald Trump thinks it's just peachy that Buttwhatever thinks of himself as a "wife." This level of perversion of simple concepts doesn't happen in darkened corners. This is being done to us in the light of day. And, you, my friend are complicit when you don't force sin into the darkened corners of our culture. This intellectual cowardice and weakness is showing up everywhere. I received the following email yesterday in response to my Christian Crusade in Maine. It is from a highly intelligent and courageous Roman Catholic who obviously is still stuck in the paradigm created for us by the media and political demons. Here's her patronizing email, "Thanks, Michael. I do not want to appear ungrateful or rude; however ... Please do not mention my name in regard to your effort to bring Mills down. I do not want to have anything to do with your effort, since it is not realistic. For instance, how can you plan to impeach Mills when the Republicans do not have a majority in either House or Senate. I personally believe your perhaps well meaning effort is a fruitless one which could well do more harm than good, thereby damaging intelligent/focused efforts of others ..." Everyone knows now that the people who control politics and media in the West are bastards. They are illegitimate noblemen who subverted democratic institutions over the past four centuries. They will not be rooted out with "realistic" approaches. This evil requires exorcism ... a spiritual response ... not a political one. That's why I'm going to simply read an Imprecatory Psalm in the State House to kick off the Crusade. My response to this otherwise intelligent woman is the same as Clark Gable's, "Frankly, my dear, I don't give a damn."

The Jezebel Janet Kills Crusade Launches May 30th in the State House. You Coming? If Not Now — When? Call me. I can't make it any easier than that. My mobile phone even. 1-207-956-0819.
