SHIELD OF FAITH

"Take Up the Shield of Faith" - Paul

Monday June 3, 2019

Warn a divisive person once, and then warn them a second time. After that, have nothing to do with them.
— Titus 3:10

Divisiveness

Have you noticed that there is NO unity. Contention and disagreement are the rule of the day. That's normal ... American even. Instead of working to follow the motto "Out of many one" we work overtime to make it "Out of many ... more!" I learned yesterday that the uber-Leftist columnist Bill Nemitz in Maine mocked me again. My sin this time is thinking that the innocence of children ought not be violated by transvestites during "drag queen story hours." The youthful Mayor of Waterville, Nick Isgro, is compared unfavorably to me in the Nemitz column. Isgro is a thoughtful Roman Catholic father of five young children. His city featured one of these demonic attacks on children this past Saturday. It was part of a "gay pride week." Local Christians organized a misguided witness handing out water and offering to pray with the demons. I know you are weary of this insanity. We all are. Nemitz gets kudos for his divisiveness from his paymasters in the lamestream media. The rabid Left loves his cleverness and wit. But his cause is dying while men and women all over the world are moving on. Our souls yearn for love, truth, beauty and peace. And, you know something, it is all around us. We find it through reason, fellowship, prayer, family, unity and church. The body count from the sexual revolution has piled high enough now for everyone to notice. Folks are figuring out that sexual liberation doesn't liberate. It binds, destroys and limits. People are looking for a better way to manage their relationships and bodies. The genderbending is the end of the road for the political and religious Left. They are not going to be able to go any further. They are losing traction. The narrative is shifting away from them. The best thing we can do with sad souls like Nemitz is to have nothing to do with them. An increasing number of people are choosing to have nothing to do with newspapers like the Portland Press Herald. They are turning to Facebook and Instagram for news about people and causes that interest them. A cause that interests me is ridding Maine of Jezebel Janet Kills, the Governor. A reasonable future won't drag along from the past the cultural Marxist baggage of the Governor and her family. I know her brother Peter Mills. He has done more than anybody else in Maine to assure that the Republican Party remained firmly in the grip of the baby murder and sodomite cabal. Now is the time to plant a stone in the forehead of that politically-connected family ... and then use their own sword to lop off their political head. Mainers have lost their patience. It is time to move on to bigger and better things. We must set aside the partisan, Hegelian bickering and unite as Mainers to build a state of peace, family, love and hard work.
