SHIELD OF FAITH

"Take Up the Shield of Faith" - Paul

Friday June 7, 2019

Thou wilt keep him in perfect peace, whose mind is stayed on thee: because he trusteth in thee. — Isaiah 26:3

DEMONrats

I feel bad. My headline for yesterday's "Shield of Faith" was DEMONrats. I realized too late that I should have left the "c" out. They are RATS, not CRATS. I like both ... but RATS is a better fit for this gaggle of demons. The local RATS here in North Carolina are hell bent on killing babies after they're born. The Governor is leader of the Leftist mob. He's never heard of an "aborted" baby that doesn't deserve to be murdered, even if she manages to survive until she emerges capable of taking her first breath. KILL HER! That's his mantra. He has no interest in giving that girl the right to choose. Oh no, survive your abortion-minded father's will to kill to the point of breathing and the state is there to make sure your body can be carved up and sold off to the highest bidder. I haven't checked, but I'm sure he's got to be a fan of butt farming. My son came up with that moniker for the "Big Gay" agenda. It's apt, if you want to think about it ... and I don't. Gross. Why is one of our two major political parties lock-step in favor of all things death? How did we descend to this extremely debased level of discourse? What happened to the true, the good and the beautiful? How did we get to the point where our first thought when we see a pastor or priest is to ask ourselves how "gay" it is. And I use the word "it" on purpose. How else to describe the gender and sex alphabet soup that is being forced down our throats in the name of love? Everybody's an "it" now. And if you are idiotic enough to think that you are a male or female ... well ... you're not qualified for institutional leadership. That's clear. If you can't pass the nice test at your local church or workplace then you can forget any sort of career. You better learn plumbing, and keep your mouth shut while you're unclogging that fat hapless lesbo's drain. Oh, and if you're lucky enough to land a job on a paving crew be sure to love on that ugly feminist flag holder. And don't you dare ever think about asking her to carry the same heavy load that's demanded of the men on the crew. Never forget that those womyn have equal rights. That means that they are equal ... and you're not. Even Orwell couldn't have imagined the nightmare that we are now living. And it looks like the silent majority will take their wisdom and experience to the grave with them. Heaven forbid that they would offend their long-term Leftist "friends" by taking a bold stand against all things homo before they die. Tragedies are what they are. I fear we are living through the tragic collapse of a promising idea ... the American Way. The good news is found in the verse above. If ole Isaiah could write something like that going through what he experienced speaking truth to power then we can draw comfort from the same truth. I'm going to stay my mind on God today. I'm going to trust Him. How about you?
