

SHIELD OF FAITH

"Take Up the Shield of Faith" - Paul

Friday June 28, 2019

This practice of constitutional revision by an unelected committee of nine, always accompanied (as it is today) by extravagant praise of liberty, robs the People of the most important liberty they asserted in the Declaration of Independence and won in the Revolution of 1776: the freedom to govern themselves. — Supreme Court Justice Antonin Scalia

Fright Wing Watch

On Wednesday morning Paulie and I stood on the steps of the U.S. Supreme Court. It was our 37th wedding anniversary. I was so happy to be there celebrating Matrimony Day God's Way. There is no place on earth I would rather have been that morning.

We are in the fight of our lives. It is always an honor for a warrior to serve on the front lines of a war. And we are engaged in a war, the consequences of which are beyond imagining.

It was a delight to stand right next to a line of lamestream media outlets stretching a hundred feet or more. God sent them there to ignore us. And they did precisely what Paul predicted they would do in his letter to the Romans. They arrogantly celebrated — in their God-sent delusional way — the idea that two men having sex is a good thing.

As wonderful as it was to honor the marriage of my parents, the high point of the morning for me was reading the statement I wrote the day before. The Holy Spirit gave it to me so quickly. It just flowed out of me in minutes.

It frightened Right Wing Watch so much they featured the entire statement in their video of the event. There were over a dozen speakers. LifeSiteNews ignored my statement, according to a reader who emailed me this morning.

Here's my two minute statement that is simple Christian truth.

We must gather here every year. Not to celebrate sodomy. We gather to remember and celebrate God's definition of marriage.

St. John Chrysostom affirmed, "that these [homosexuals] are worse than murderers, since it is better to die than to live after such a shame. The murderer separates the soul from the body, while this one destroys the soul along with the body."

And homosexuals destroy not only their own souls. They also destroy the soul of a nation.

Democracy is at the heart of what smooths the way politically for America. Our founders decided to bake voting into every layer of the American cake.

We must never forget the diabolical and totalitarian nature of the Obergefell vs Hodges attack on our civilization. Over thirty of our states had voted by significant majorities to define marriage God's way – many times choosing to amend their State Constitutions!

The vote of just one Jezebel on this APPOINTED, UNELECTED body of nine overturned the decision of tens of millions of American citizens. If this isn't totalitarianism, I don't know what is.

Americans don't trust their institutions. It would be imprudent to do so. This wicked, unconstitutional decision gives all of us significant cause to deeply question the jurisprudence of this Court. These people are Black Robed Terrorists making war on everything that is good, true and beautiful.

Either We the People stop them or America's Republic will disintegrate.

God help us!

I fought within myself as the time approached for me to present these thoughts. The fight didn't rage. It was a smoldering fire from my years working with the public relations driven "ministry" Focus on the Family. I knew that using the Chrysostom quote was bad public relations.

AND THAT'S WHY I DOUBLED DOWN ON USING IT!

Our worship of all things psychological and Freudian is quite literally destroying us. The term "public relations" was invented by Freud's cousin, Edward Béarnaise. Google it.

The Holy Spirit inspired me to go beyond comparing homosexuals to murderers. He inspired me to point out that they are murdering our nation. Everyone knows that.

Fright Wing Watch has only the riches they've robbed from brainwashed Leftists. They know their days are numbered. Man's yearning for the good, the true and the beautiful is asserting itself. God is rising.

I'm writing this morning from the home of Benjamin Bubar Sr's granddaughter in Maine. Ben was the most famous Christian preacher of the early twentieth century here. He was Maine's Billy Sunday. His son, Benjamin Bubar Jr, headed the Christian Civic League for 33 years. I led the League for two decades.

Scrawled in his own handwriting in the livingroom downstairs is a sign from Ben Sr's days of ministry a century ago. He wrote, "Keep Your Conscience Clean, Your Powder Dry, Trust in God, Fight Like Blazes."

It's hard to find men with a clean conscience today. We've become so perverted in our thinking, and especially our acting. But I was honored to discover one as I was walking to Union Station from the Supreme Court on Wednesday. His name is Ron Brock. He is eighty years old. For thirty years he has served as a missionary for the pre born throughout America using a homemade Truth Truck, in which he resides.

He called me weeks ago and told me that he was postponing heart surgery to be with us on Wednesday. He called the day before to tell me that his truck transmission was broken. He was uncertain about his ability to be there. While his health didn't allow him to stand with us on the steps, he did manage — somehow — to get the truck into the city and park it in a very prominent spot where nobody walking to Union Station would miss it.

He was filled with his usually even temper when Paulie and I stopped to snap a picture and enjoy a short time of Christian fellowship.

God is so good folks. If you are troubled deep down in your soul turn to Him. He can help.

I promise.
