The Truth Unfurled

I got a Telegram this morning. It was from Telegram, the App.

I read the following, "UPDATE: Tommy Robinson's wife spoke to him this morning and he sounds down today. He is just desperate for visits as it's pretty much the only time he's allowed out to talk to anyone. Legal team visit planned for Wednesday to discuss his appeal. So sad."

I'm praying for Tommy everyday. I was very interested in this current news. I wanted to receive it.

Facebook won't allow me to have it. Twitter has decided that Tommy is evil. Google and Tommy's government want him ... dead. Robinson has been banned from all of these American internet platforms, and more. The approved sources of global news have decided to lie about him.

Proof.

I was in my kitchen two mornings ago. A man who rents a room from us struck up a conversation with me about Tommy. He expressed shock at The Sun, a major UK Newspaper. He read their story online about Tommy's conviction. The story linked to an official biography of Tommy Robinson. He told me the biography was propaganda. As evidence he cited the fact that the biography didn't mention the words "muslim" or "islam."

While I was on Telegram this morning I took a few minutes to tap into a couple other channels I've subscribed to and read some linked news. The facts I learned were so encouraging.

It isn't working. The censorship push by global multiculturalist Christ-haters is backfiring.

The truth today is like a furled flag that has just been attached to the flag pole. As it unfurls it is rising into the sky. More and more people all over the world are seeing it. And they are inspired.

I read this the other day about God's covenant with Noah, "After the unity of the human race was shattered by sin God at once sought to save humanity part by part, the covenant with Noah after the flood gives expression to the principle of the divine economy toward the 'nations', in other words, towards men grouped 'in their lands, each with (its) own language, by their families, in their nations". The Roman Catholic Catechism continues, "This state of division into many nations, each entrusted by divine providence to the guardianship of angels, is at once cosmic, social and religious. It is intended to limit the pride of fallen humanity united only in its perverse ambition to forge its own unity as at Babel. But, because of sin, both polytheism and the idolatry of the nation and of its rulers constantly threaten this provisional economy with the perversion of paganism.”

The popular television commentator of the 1950s, Fulton Sheen, observed that the Russian Orthodox Church would save the world. He made this prediction at the height of communist control over the Soviet Union — Eastern Europe. The world was prepping for MAD — the political doctrine of the 1960s called Mutual Assured Destruction. While the world was doing its usual, being MAD, Jesus Christ was arming Russia with what it would need to drop truth bombs in the new millennium.

The Telegram App wasn't created by inventors in the land of the free and the home of the brave. Nope. It was developed by two eastern Europeans.

And if a “christian” nation with a billionaire President who pushes sodomy on the planet at the point of a sword isn't truly pagan then I guess even the word pagan has been gayified.

This is such an exciting time to be rocking and rolling on planet earth. I grew up being brainwashed by National Geographic, public schools and pop culture to think that Christianity, and indeed all religions, were no more significant than your vanilla superstition. With Islam muscling up inside Christendom the ancient and living God-man of Christianity is stirring. I like the way John the Revelator describes him. He's even got a tatoo!

“And I saw heaven opened, and behold a white horse; and he that sat upon him was called Faithful and True, and in righteousness he doth judge and make war. His eyes were as a flame of fire, and on his head were many crowns; and he had a name written, that no man knew, but he himself. And he was clothed with a vesture dipped in blood: and his name is called The Word of God. And the armies which were in heaven followed him upon white horses, clothed in fine linen, white and clean. And out of his mouth goeth a sharp sword, that with it he should smite the nations: and he shall rule them with a rod of iron: and he treadeth the winepress of the fierceness and wrath of Almighty God. And he hath on his vesture and on his thigh a name written, KING OF KINGS, AND Lord OF LORDS.”

I am sanguine about what comes next for the world. The globalist Left is collapsing. The fundamental role that religion, family and neighborhood play in our human experience is rising. It is not hateful to disagree. It is hateful to conflate physical violence and threats of violence with rhetoric ... words.

Far from being the Mark of the Beast I think the internet is going to prove more civilizing than electricity.

Selah.
