Be strong and of a good courage, fear not, nor be afraid of them: for the Lord thy God, he it is that doth go with thee; he will not fail thee, nor forsake thee. — Deuteronomy 31:6

Tin Foil Hat Time

Six months ago this website was deleted by Google. Facebook is not allowing this group to use the word "geoengineering." These facts alone make me interested in understanding what they have to say.

I opened yesterday's column writing about conspiracy theories. This morning the Holy Spirit took me on a deep dive. Chemtrails anyone?

I like to listen to Greg Hunter. I found him a couple years ago. He used to work for CNN. He produces YouTubes on his channel called USA Watchdog. Look him up. I listened to his recent interview with Dane Wigington on my way to the office this morning. He is a principal with the website.

I needed the scripture I quoted above by the time I arrived at the office. It is the Scripture of the Day at Bible.com.

"Be strong and of a good courage, fear not, nor be afraid of them: for the Lord thy God, he it is that doth go with thee; he will not fail thee, nor forsake thee." — Deuteronomy 31:6 As it turns out Greg Hunter often closes his interviews with this same thought. Greg is one of those. He is a hater. A homophobe. He .... is ... wait for it ... a Christian. AAAAAHHHHHHRRRRGGGGGG ...run for your safe place occasional cortex.

Hunter and Wigington talked about what the scientific data is PROVING regarding manipulation of the weather. I'm seeking understanding here. If you want to continue trusting a world that believes girls should be Boy Scouts then go right ahead. I'm all done doing that.

I'm on the prowl for truth. Trolls, liars, governments and corporations be damned.

Hunter and Wigington talked about hurricane Dorian's stall over the Bahamas. I remember catching up on the weather while planning our trip home from Branson Monday morning. The stall of the hurricane was curious. Wigington claims it was more than curious. He asserted that the scientific data proves that the hurricane was held in place by military grade geoengineering processes.

I've never gone far down the weather manipulation rabbit hole. I've taken the time to listen to some presentations online by individuals with impressive credentials. A big part of me keeps all this stuff at arms length for my mind's sake. It is just too unnerving psychologically to consider the implications of institutional lying of this magnitude.

Most everyone close to me is more reticent than me on considering this stuff. They choose to accept the narrative presented by the American corporate advertising controlled media and institutions.

Our institutions are controlled from the top down by either advertising or donations. The for-profit world maintains a system of the world using paychecks that are dependent on sales. The non-profit world uses paychecks dependent on donations acquired through the shrewd marketing of a cause, combined with large checks from corporate controlled trusts and rich people. The narratives created by both the profit and non-profit worlds require the same thing our economic system needs — trust.

I don't trust any of them anymore. But I was raised to trust American institutions. This cognitive dissonance is what keeps me and those close to me from considering data that contradicts the narrative. And it's not simply because I was taught by my parents who to trust and who not to trust. It's because a society cannot operate without trust.

I quoted a lengthy passage from William Butler Yeats' poem "The Second Coming" last week. In 1919, exactly one hundred years ago, he wrote, "Things fall apart; the centre cannot hold; Mere anarchy is loosed upon the world."

Dorian's center held for a couple days over the Bahamas. Dane Wigington proves scientifically that it was held there by man. This much I know for certain at this point, if God intends for us to control the path of hurricanes I know that He doesn't intend for it to be done secretly. Mere anarchy is loosed upon the world.

The bottom line reason for our cognitive dissonance is pride. G.K. Chesterton wrote, "Pride consists in a man making his personality the only test, instead of making truth the test. The sceptic feels himself too large to measure life by the largest things; and ends by measuring it by the smallest thing of all."

We ignore the data about these things to protect our personalities. And our personalities are being manipulated by evil forces. Fakebook anyone?

The largest idea in the West is God. We Americans most definitely feel ourselves too large to consider measuring our life by Him. We are proud. And our pride is destroying the civilization our ancestors bled out to create and preserve.

America's motto is "In God we Trust."

Really!?
