The name of the Lord is a strong tower: the righteous runneth into it, and is safe. — Proverbs 18:10

The Strong Tower

Today is the anniversary of one of those days in history. We all label it 9/11 after the date in the year 2001 when three steel skyscrapers collapsed at the speed of gravity into their basements. It was an epic event. It caused immense change all over the world. Never before in history has a civilization shifted so much power in such a short period of time. Looking back, I feel like everything changed on that day.

There is America before 9/11 and America after 9/11. The one before was barely holding on to the idea that the nation is a constitutional republic. That America collapsed along with the towers. And it fell at the speed of gravity.

It was replaced by a global political oligarchy gorged on the worldly rotten fruit that wealth and power produce along with a complicit citizenry. This fearful elite is with us today, empowered by their success. Following the principle of never letting a good crisis go to waste the corporate oligarchy used 9/11 to put in place a surveillance mechanism that even Orwell didn't foresee.

This group of intellectual bandits doubled down on their social agenda. They amped up their devotion to sexual licentiousness. They'd unleashed that on the West earlier in the twentieth century. It was the perfect tactic to separate Western Man from God. A God that makes impossible sexual demands isn't a God. That entity is part of a fevered narrative foisted on ignorant masses over centuries by the power elites of former generations.

Everyone knows now that one's animal urges must not be suppressed, especially when it comes to the orgasm. Hollywood and politics now feed us round the clock sex and violence charged "entertainment." This is all a distraction designed to keep us from focusing on the real problems. Those challenges are all around us now. They are inside of our soul. The confusion, chaos and destruction is visiting every marriage, family and individual.

Institutional leadership has utterly failed the people of the West. They really believe that the destruction of Christianity in the West will bring about a global utopia. And most Christians now go along with their program.

Europeans are predominately white skinned. America was settled by European Christians. It follows that most Americans have white skin, and that they derive their ideas about morality and religion from Christianity. This situation is unacceptable to whatever force is powering the world right now. I see Satan's fingerprints all over this.

Ronald Reagan's Assistant Secretary of the Treasury, Dr. Paul Craig Roberts, penned a provocatively titled article recently, "The end of White America and Israel lobby."

He begins, "The end of white America is now assured. The only question is the fate of the remnants."

He continues, "It seems as if the West is dead in every way. The rule of law is dead throughout the West. Democracy is a scam. There is oligarchic rule. Everything is done for organized interest groups. Nothing is done for the people. Putin just declared: 'West's leading role is ending.' How right he is."

Putin's Russia is Christian. The Russian people finally shrugged off the ugly cloak of communism. They are emerging as the defender of Christians the world over. While America continues to pursue self-destructive immigration policies, Russia is extending a helping hand to the Christian farmers of South Africa. They are increasingly the victims of brutal violence fueled by the reaction to apartheid.

Roberts goes on to cite a Brookings Institution report titled, "Less than Half of US Children Under 15 Are White, Census Shows." The author of the report, William H. Frey, referencing recent government statistics concludes that the future for white Americans is challenging, at best. Roberts observes, "Decades of unbroken massive inflows of third world immigrants have destroyed the 'melting pot' and produced in its place a tower of babel. Multicultural populations lack a common interest. They are the antithesis of a nation. Everywhere in the Western world the nations are expiring."

I am looking for a strong tower into which I can run for defense of family against this rising horde. Our verse for the day tells us that God's name is that strong tower. It says that I can run into it and "be safe."

This strong tower is religious. It is spiritual. The promised safety is eternal, not worldly.

For two weeks after the 9/11 attack Americans went to church. The government closed the investigation into what happened, and sold all the steel to China. Before their church going could become a habit the corporate government complex unleashed "Homeland Security" powered by the internet. No need for God when Hillary, Barack Hussein Obama and Mark Zuckerberg have your back.

Roberts concludes his article with a truth that is starting to roil and boil within American Christianity. He writes, "It will also be interesting to see if the Israel lobby can put the same ring through the nose of the rising Hispanic/Asian majority as they have through the nose of the declining white majority. Can Hispanics and Asians be made to feel guilty about the holocaust and persecution of Jews? Can their leaders, like white leaders, be bought into Israel's service?"

Bought into Israel's service. Ouch.

Selah.
