Even were I to walk in a ravine as dark as death I should fear no danger, for you are at my side. Your staff and your crook are there to soothe me. — Psalm 23:4

LGBTism is a Ravine as Dark as Death

LGBTism is such an old idea. We think it's fashionable, hip and progressive. Shoot, millennial not-so-Christians are proving their cultural bona fides now by finding not-so-subtle ways to identify as sodomy friendly. They do it to bring pleasure to the preachers of LGBTism.

For decades I've been bored by the idea. But God has been gracious enough to enable me to fight all these decades anyway. I'm thankful. A Christian advocacy group recently put out a list of well known American cultural icons. These icons identify publicly with both Jesus Christ and compromise with the LGBTists. Familiar names like Tim Tebow and a few others who have offered very public bows and scrapes in the direction of the LGBT Nazis going back a number of years.

Christians know that there is no compromise with sodomy. There is NO DEBATE among Christians about this. Many, many VERY MANY people who think they are Christians today obviously are not walking on a path that is anywhere near the narrow one. Their religious path is broad indeed. And we all know what Jesus said about people who choose the broad path TO DESTRUCTION.

Isn't it obvious!/? If you're as old as I am you feel it in your bones. You see it everywhere you look. You smell it. That's the smell of sulfur burning. The West is collapsing in so many ways. The critical way is it's perversion of the most needful and basic of human needs — love.

We can't live without love. That's why the rite of LGBTism is abortion. Abortion is the precise religious opposite of sexual love. And it even requires the shedding of innocent blood. Abortion is LGBTism's communion. Their Eucharist is the shedding of baby's blood. We're closing in on one hundred million babies slaughtered LEGALLY in the United States since 1973. That's a lot of innocent blood. That's a lot of spiritual power.

And we export the child sacrifice globally, at the point of our immense military guns. We pretend that we do it to curb population growth. But we all know the real reason is to encourage more sexual promiscuity. We do it to untether the sexual act from the biological fact that it is designed by our Creator as a celebration of LIFE, not pleasure. We've taken a hot fire in nature designed to burn in the fireplace of marriage and set it "free" to become chaotic wild fires. Once the fires burn off all that's good, true and beautiful Satan's morbidly rich swoop in for the kill.

God is not going to put up with this much longer. He is merciful. This will end.

I stopped thinking about the Tim Tebows of this world a little over a decade ago. I switched to thinking more about Christianity and Jesus Christ. I love Him more than my life itself. I'm looking forward to meeting Him in person ... sort of. Our first meeting is going to be with me facing Him as Judge. And I've failed Him too many times to count. I guess I'm not really looking forward to that Judgment Day ... as I think about it. I love Him so much ... and I've been weak and disloyal to Him countless times. I've reasoned that I had to "fit in" to keep the paycheck coming so that I could feed my family. I won't be mentioning that "reasoning" on Judgment Day.

You know, as I look back on more than half my life, I realize that Jesus Christ and His angels are what brought me through ... they were what brought good, true and beautiful ends out of often misdirected and half-hearted means. It makes me so grateful to my Good Shepherd.

As I stare into this LGBTist hellscape that our leadership is planning for U.S. and the world I look to Him. We are, indeed, walking into a ravine as dark as death. But you know something? I fear no danger. He — Jesus Christ — is at my side.

The Psalmist goes on in this once ubiquitous and American-as-apple-pie-Psalm to say, "Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the LORD for ever."

Can you imagine our cups running over at a table prepared for us by Jesus Christ in the presence of the LGBTist enemies? I can. None of us get to know the future. Christ might not come back for ten thousand years. Nobody knows the day or the hour. God has arranged for banquets like this countless times before in human history.

I want a place at that table. How about you?

Selah.
